

Facts about SLT

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 27 May 2009 08:35 -

Selective Laser Trabeculoplasty (otherwise known as SLT) is an established treatment for glaucoma that safely and effectively reduces eye pressure in a single treatment. SLT can be an effective additional treatment to medication, or has been used as a primary treatment to reduce or eliminate the need for topical glaucoma medications. SLT has the potential to improve compliance with medications.